

Montgomery Records 'Perfect Year!'

SQUEEZE PLAY . . . Racing to the plate to score the tying run in the fifth inning, Paul Fieri of Rolling Hills knotted the score at 1-1 against Torrance in the Sky League battle at Torrance Park yesterday. Catcher Fred Kendall watches Fieri score as Steve Crawford is thrown out on the only play possible, second to first. Torrance salvaged the victory in the 15th inning to clinch title.

Annie, Get Your Gun!

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

The Black Panther incident in the state capitol, when an armed band of leather-jacketed Negroes stormed the assembly chamber, delivered quite a shock to all concerned.

The political action group, claimed to be concerned with self defense against police brutality, didn't do much to help its cause. On the night of the same day of their demonstration, the assembly committee on criminal procedure approved a bill which would make it illegal to carry a loaded gun on a city street.

This is a reasonable law, once certain necessary exceptions are added. It may interest some to know that the often-maligned National Rifle Association has been in support of Assemblyman Don Mulford's bill.

As is well known about this corner, we're against such stricter gun controls than already are on the books in California. But there certainly is no justification for carrying a loaded gun on a street, or into a building, whether it be the state capitol or Macy's.

There have to be a few exceptions, of course. The man going to the bank with the weekend receipts from a huge super market, who carries a gun, wouldn't have much use for it if it weren't loaded.

There already is some law on the books concerning displaying guns in a threatening or hostile manner. Personally, it was felt when the Black Panthers knocked aside the sergeant-at-arms and trotted into the assembly chamber, with the house in session, this was displaying guns in a threatening and hostile manner.

The state police, whose duty it is to guard the state capitol and grounds, as well as at other state buildings throughout the state, have to be aware of the suspect's right, just like other law enforcement officers.

Ridiculous as it might seem, after the police escorted the Panthers out of the assembly chamber and into the capitol police office, they had to give them back their guns and ammunition.

The fact that Governor Ronald Reagan was attempting to have a picnic lunch on the capitol grounds with an eighth-grade class was a coincidence but the whole affair showed the need for the Mulford Bill.

The bill will contain exceptions, for instance, for the person who is taking his rifle to the shop for repairs, alterations or sighting-in. Normally, rifles are carried in cases in such instances anyway.

The criminal procedure committee made short work of another bill at the Panther-day hearing, even though it would have tightened the law. This was a measure which would have put CO2 pellet guns in the concealed weapon class.

This was an attorney general's bill, but the committee indicated it felt it was fine to make it illegal to possess anti-tank guns, bazookas and cannons but tightening the law on oversize B-B guns was perhaps going a bit too far.

The AG's office argued that the pellet guns looked very much like real guns and thus should be included in the concealed category. But it was pointed out that guns often looked like the real thing and it would be a bit far-fetched to put them under concealable weapons regulations.

Trackmen To Invade Mira Costa

Four preliminary meets—featuring more than 3,000 high school track and field competitors—signal the beginning of the 55th annual CIF track and field championships Saturday.

Preliminary meets are scheduled at Lakewood, Newport, Chaffey and Mira Costa high schools with pole vault competition set for 11:30 a.m. Track events start at 12:30.

Qualifiers from the prelims will compete in the semi-final meet at Cerritos College on Friday night, May 19. The CIF Southern Section, finals are set for Friday night, May 26, at Mt. San Antonio College.

A total of 89 boys in each of 34 events remains in CIF competition going into Saturday's prelims with Muir High of Pasadena generally regarded as the favorite for the varsity crown.

Depsters, however, have been given Centennial more than casual glances in recent weeks since the return of premier hurdler Johnny Veal after a hospital bout with internal bleeding. Veal has run the hurdles in 14.0 and 19.1.

Centennial coach Bill Gill figures he will get solid CIF performances from Veal as well as Edsel Garrison in the 440 (48.1), Ronnie Wicks (6-8 3/4) in the high jump, Nathan Spann (9.7, 21.6) in the sprints, and a 1:26.8 relay team.

Tartars Win In 15th, 2-1

Bill Bynum rapped a game-winning hit against the fence to score Mark Intermill with the winning run in the 15th inning yesterday as Torrance High won its second straight Sky League baseball championship.

Bart Johnson of the Tartars and Jay Victor of Rolling Hills were involved in the pitchers' battle. Bart had 20 strikeouts and gave up five hits. Victor gave up 14 hits, including three in the first inning for a run and three in the 15th for the winning run.

Johnson helped his cause by singling home Al Duarte in the first frame.

Rolling Hills tied the count in the fifth when Paul Fieri's double was error'd in left and he got to third base. With one away Steve Crawford sent a squeeze bunt to second base for the run.

Both teams left men stranded throughout the game, but in the 15th Mark Intermill and Mark Hornbeck singled and Bynum got his second straight hit for the victory.

Bynum and Kendall both had three hits.

The win gave Torrance an 11-2 record with two games remaining against Rolling Hills. They return to Torrance Park again tomorrow, but the pressure is on Rolling Hills (8-5) which is battling Beverly Hills (8-4) for second place.

Bill Vukovich Seeks Fourth Straight Win

Billy Vukovich of Fresno will shoot for his fourth straight feature win at Gardena's Ascot Park in Saturday night's 50-lap CRA sprint car race.

The 23-year-old son of the late two-time Indianapolis 500 winner of the same name, is currently the hottest driver in the West. He has won his last three starts at Ascot in three different types of cars—sprints, midgets, and super-modifieds.

Three weeks ago Billy scored his first CRA Indianapolis-type car victory when he beat the West's top drivers in the Gold Cup race.

HOLLYWOOD PARK Debonair Stakes Featured Saturday

Hollywood Park's 1967 thoroughbred race meeting, away to a fast start last Wednesday, will pick up additional momentum this week-end with the presentation Saturday of the $25,000 added Debonair Stakes.

The 6-furlong event for 3-year-old colts and geldings will headline the first of 11 gala Saturday programs during the 55-day Hollywood Park season. Post time for all Saturday and holiday cards will advance to 1:15 p.m.

Fans in attendance at the "track of the lakes and flowers" during the opening days of the meeting were thrilled by competition on Hollywood's spectacular new turf course, one of several changes and improvements in effect for the summer season. And they can look forward to a thrilling renewal of the Debonair Stakes.

First of 11 stakes for $425,000 added for sophomores, the Debonair, which will have its 16th running, is an initial steppingstone to the $100,000 added Hollywood Derby, the mile and one-quarter event that on July 8 will climax competition for the division.

Among the outstanding sophomores expected to go postward in the Debonair are Bahroona, Gentlemans Game, Dr. Roy E. and Pagan Gam.

Bahroona, a son of Poona II and In Regards, flashed great promise last summer, boasting two victories over the colt now generally considered the best of the West Coast's three-year-olds, Ru-Khalborough.

ken, At Del Mar, he earned stakes brackets in the Graduation Stakes.

Gentlemans Game, a quick Nashville colt, was a sprint winner at Santa Anita this winter and has trained impressively for his engagement in the Debonair. Dr. Roy E. won three races before suffering his initial loss last year and will be attempting a comeback at Hollywood Park.

Pagan Gam, somewhat of a "rags to riches" colt, won the recent Eastbay Handicap at Golden Gate Fields in typical stretch-running fashion, after being claimed for $20,000.

Other prospects for the sprint include Election Day, Sun Seeker, Confederate, Acroforma, Mike Burns and Khalborough.

Saxons Wreck North

A bloop single over first base by Craig Cochran scored two runs with two away in the fifth inning and gave the North Saxons a 5-3 win over South Monday. The loss dropped South (9-5) 2 1/2 games behind Redondo (11-2) in the Bay League race. Redondo knocked over Inglewood, 4-3.

Cochran's first hit of the year scored Daryl Masuyama and Jerry Ball to break a 3-3 tie.

South knotted the count in the top of the fifth when Wade Linstad slammed a home run behind Steve Letho's single and Jeff Wang's double.

North's first two runs came on three first inning hits, including a triple by Rich Gonzales.

North (8-9) winds up its season Friday at Hawthorne.

The race is far from over for South which has three makeup games scheduled next week. The Spartans meet Mira Costa today, Inglewood Friday, and the last of two games a week hence is against Redondo.

Both Redondo and South have five games to play going into today's activity.

Varsity 15-0 in Baseball

By HENRY BURKE
Press-Herald Sports Editor

The Senior Class of '67 at Bishop Montgomery High School will be remembered for its accomplishments in the "world of sports."

The Camino Real League may never forget it either.

The varsity football team had an unbeaten 5-0 record. The varsity basketball team enjoyed a 10-0 record.

The varsity track and field team had a 4-0 record and won all eight of its dual meets.

Yesterday the varsity baseball team won its 15th straight varsity baseball game for an unbeaten season.

The finale against Crespi was a makeup game. There was no need to play the game except to give Crespi one more shot at Montgomery's unblemished record.

The Knights jumped off to a 4-0 lead in the first inning at Encino and scored in each of five innings.

Coach John Becker of Crespi was ejected from the game with two away in the bottom of the fifth and the game was automatically forfeited to Montgomery.

Meanwhile, Rich Perez had gone the distance without giving up a hit or a base on balls.

Montgomery's first rally featured a bases loaded triple by Nels Straley that scored Danny Graham, Chuck Bongard and Dan Fritthel.

Straley scored on Mike Constantino's single.

Bongard was 3-for-3, including a triple and three RBIs.

Montgomery will resume its baseball campaign in the CIF "AA" playoffs next week.

Johnson Hits 3 Homers

Torrance National Little League is bracing itself for a showdown game between the Phillies (5-0) and Cardinals (4-1) Friday night at Del Amo Field.

The Phillies trailed the Angels, 9-4, but came on to win 12-10 with seven home runs. Three were hit by Brent Johnson in the first, third and sixth innings and Bob McKinnon hit a pair in the fourth and sixth stanzas. Paul O'Brien and Mike Anderson hit the others.

Dave Olson hit a two-run homer in the third for the Cards' 2-1 win over the Yankees. Scott Schneider's first home run of his career was a grand slam homer as the Giants beat the Yankees, 6-2.

After Tim Desjaigne homered for the Braves against the Cards, the Braves loaded the bases and were turned away on a line drive triple play. The Cards won, 6-4.

This is a rough year for Dodger teams particularly in the Torrance American Little League, where they were clubbed by the Red Sox Monday night, 30-0. Wayne Irvine hit two home runs for the Red Sox, including a grand slam homer.

Eddie Kimbell of the Pacific Coast Little League Angels has given up one hit in two games. He allowed one hit to the Stars Sunday, but had nothing to do with the outcome when his team was beaten in eight innings, 1-0. Larry Willens, the winning pitcher, got his team's only hit.

Leading Riviera Little League in home runs is Brad Wuthrich with five. He bratted the Angeles to a 3-2 win over the Indians Saturday to keep his team in a first place tie with the Orioles. Both have 4-2 records.

Batters on the Tordondo Little League Cubs and Braves traded grand slam home runs, but the Cubs won the game, 8-7, and have a leading 5-1 record. John Sedia of the Cubs and Rick Schween of the Braves hit the round-trippers.
